

An aerial photograph of Dubai Creek Harbour. The water is a deep, vibrant blue, filling most of the frame. In the bottom right corner, a sandy promenade curves along the water's edge. Two people are walking on the sand, and a large, dense green tree stands nearby. The text 'DUBAI CREEK HARBOUR' is centered in the upper half of the image, with 'CREEK EDGE' below it, separated by a thin white line. The word 'EMAAR' is positioned at the bottom center, overlapping the sand.
